FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Prospectus contains forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties and that address, among other things, the ability of the Fund to repay the Promissory Notes, the use of proceeds from the sale of the Promissory Notes, the amount of Promissory Notes that will be deemed sold as a result of roll-overs or reinvestments, the amount and sufficiency of the Fund's allowance for credit losses, and the Fund's loan underwriting standards and procedures. Forward-looking statements relate to expectations, beliefs, projections, future plans and strategies, anticipated events or trends and similar expressions concerning matters that are not historical facts. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terms such as "anticipate," "believe," "could," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "plan," "potential," "should," "will" and "would" or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology. The forward-looking statements are based on the Fund's beliefs, assumptions and expectations, considering information currently available to the Fund. These beliefs, assumptions and expectations can change as a result of many possible events or factors, not all of which are known to the Fund or are within the Fund's control, and which include the factors described under the heading "Risk Factors". Consequently, actual results, performance, achievements or events may vary materially from those expressed in the Fund's forward-looking statements. The Fund does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect occurrences or unanticipated events or circumstances after the date of such statements except as required by law. Potential investors should carefully consider these risks, along with the risks and information set forth elsewhere in this Prospectus, before making an investment decision with respect to the Promissory Notes.

SUMMARY

This summary does not contain all of the information you should consider before investing in the Promissory Notes. You should carefully read this Prospectus in its entirety, especially the “Risk Factors” section beginning on page 2 and the Fund’s consolidated financial statements and the related notes and supplementary information included with this Prospectus, before investing in the Promissory Notes.

The Fund. The Fund is a Pennsylvania non-profit corporation organized to create prosperity for low income communities and individuals, especially Persons of Color, by aligning capital, knowledge and advocacy to advance business ownership, housing and community development in the communities served by the Fund.

Use of Proceeds. The Fund intends to use the proceeds from the issuance of the Promissory Notes to make loans to organizations and businesses working to alleviate poverty and build wealth in low-wealth communities, as well as to create economic opportunity for low-wealth communities and low and moderate-income individuals across fifteen counties in eastern Pennsylvania. The Fund intends that such borrowers from the Fund will be active in areas such as housing, community resources, education, commercial enterprise, food commerce, sustainable energy and community health centers. See “Use of Proceeds” on page 8.

Management of the Fund. The Fund is governed by its Board of Directors (“Board”). The Board meets at least four times per year and currently consists of sixteen members. For the most recent fiscal year ended June 30, 2021, the full Board met five times. Daniel Betancourt serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Fund. See “Management of the Fund” on page 9.

Description of the Promissory Notes. The Promissory Notes are unsecured obligations of the Fund and bear interest at a rate that is dependent upon the principal amount of the Note, as shown on the cover page of this document. Interest is payable annually on the date specified on the Promissory Note. Unless an investor timely elects to receive payment in full of the principal amount of its Promissory Note, upon maturity, the entire amount of the loan will be renewed for the same duration as the original loan, and on the terms and conditions, including interest rate, in effect for the Fund’s Promissory Notes being sold at such time under the Fund’s prospectus then in effect. The Promissory Notes do not contain any restrictive covenants limiting the Fund’s ability to make payments on other indebtedness, incur additional indebtedness (including secured indebtedness), make loans to or investments in its affiliates or otherwise limit the Fund’s operations or financial condition. There is no public market for the Promissory Notes, and it is highly unlikely that a public market will develop. Therefore, investors in the Promissory Notes should realize that these investments will be very illiquid and must be prepared to hold the Promissory Notes until the stated maturity of such notes. See “Description of the Promissory Notes” on page 7.

The remainder of the Prospectus contains substantial additional information about the issuer, its business and financial condition and certain risk factors associated with the offering and should be reviewed carefully by prospective investors.

RISK FACTORS

ANY INVESTMENT IN THE PROMISSORY NOTES INVOLVES A NUMBER OF SIGNIFICANT RISKS, AND IS SUITABLE ONLY FOR PERSONS WHO HAVE NO NEED FOR LIQUIDITY IN THEIR INVESTMENT AND WHO REALIZE THAT THERE IS A SIGNIFICANT RISK OF LOSS OF THEIR ENTIRE INVESTMENT. A PROSPECTIVE INVESTOR SHOULD CONSIDER THE RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES DESCRIBED BELOW AND ALL OTHER INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS PROSPECTUS BEFORE INVESTING IN THE PROMISSORY NOTES.

An economic decline, either regionally or nationally, would negatively impact our borrowers' ability to repay and our own results of operations. Our business and our ability to repay the Promissory Notes may be adversely affected by the future economic environment. During economic slowdowns or recessions there is a greater likelihood that more of the Fund's customers or counterparties will be unable to repay their obligations at stated terms and maturities which may result in an extension of the payment period of our borrowers' loans. Additionally, our borrowers could become delinquent on their loans or other obligations to the Fund, which, in turn, could result in a higher level of charge-offs and provision for credit losses, all of which would adversely affect the Fund's income and ability to repay the Promissory Notes. Furthermore, a poor economic environment may also make it more difficult for the Fund to maintain its volume of newly originated loans and leases and the credit quality of such loans, leases and investments at levels previously attained which could also result in a higher level of charge-offs and provision for credit losses.

We rely on third party credit for substantially all of our funding. The Fund is and will continue to be dependent upon the availability of credit from third party financing sources in order to conduct its business and to satisfy its working capital needs. If the Fund is unable to obtain additional financing or if the terms of the Fund's current credit facilities become unacceptable or if such credit is not available at all, the Fund may not have access to the funds it requires to pay its debts as they come due or to continue to make new loans, which would limit the Fund's ability to generate income. Similarly, if necessary financing is not available on acceptable terms, or at all, to the Fund's borrowers and other counterparties, such parties may be unable to repay their loans and satisfy their other obligations to the Fund as they come due, which could adversely affect the Fund's ability to repay the Promissory Notes.

Use of Third Party Credit Subjects the Fund to Debt Compliance Obligations. In connection with obtaining financing from third parties, the Fund has entered into debt agreements that contain financial covenants requiring the Fund to maintain minimum cash balances of $2 million and to meet certain financial ratios. If the Fund fails to meet its financial covenant obligations, its lenders may declare a default and require immediate repayment of such loans which could cause the Fund to be unable to repay the Promissory Notes. As of June 30, 2021, the Fund was in compliance with all of its financial covenants.

We operate in a heavily regulated industry. The Fund and its operations and assets are subject to regulation and certification by various federal, state and local government agencies, including its designation as a CDFI by the United States Department of the Treasury's CDFI Fund. Such regulations and standards are subject to change, and there can be no assurances that in the future, the Fund will meet any changed regulations and standards or that the Fund will not be required to expend significant sums to comply with changed regulations and standards. No assurance can be given as to the effect on the Fund's future operations of existing laws, regulations and standards for certification or accreditation or of any future changes in such laws, regulations and standards, including as a result of recent changes in the leadership of the federal government. A loss of CDFI status by the Fund could result in a loss of access to favorable funding sources and reputational harm. A loss of CDE (defined below) status would make the Fund ineligible to participate in the New Market Tax Credits program.

Other possible federal or state legislation which could have an adverse effect on the Fund would include, among others: (i) limitations on the amount of charitable contributions which are deductible for income tax purposes; and (ii) regulatory limitations affecting the Fund's ability to undertake its programs or develop new programs. Since 2016, there have been various legislative changes that reformed the federal income tax code, including reducing federal income tax rates. The impact of these federal income tax reforms could have an adverse effect on the Fund in future years.

Other regulatory programs which may significantly affect the Fund include changes in governmental requirements regarding lending. Such changes could increase the cost of doing business and consequently, adversely affect the financial condition of the Fund. Future changes in federal or state laws may also adversely affect the Fund's ability to continue to access financing.

New Markets Tax Credit ("NMTC") Program. The NMTC Program was established by Congress in 2000 to spur new or increased investments into operating businesses and real estate projects located in low-income communities. The NMTC Program attracts investment capital to low-income communities by permitting individual and corporate investors to receive a tax credit against their Federal income tax return in exchange for making equity investments in specialized financial institutions called Community Development Entities (CDEs). The credit totals 39 percent of the original investment amount and is claimed over a period of seven years (five percent for each of the first three years, and six percent for each of the remaining four years). The investment in the CDEs cannot be redeemed before the end of the seven-year period. The Fund has received three allocations under the NMTC Program, totaling $90 million, with the last allocation having been made to the Organization in November 2016. The Fund obtained its NMTC allocations through an annual competitive application process. The Fund did not receive an allocation in the most recent round of New Market Tax Credits in 2021. However, in prior years the Fund received significant NMTC fees for asset management services and placement fees. Asset management fees from prior allocations are expected to continue for the next four to six years. The future of the New Market Tax Credit Program is subject to legislation authorizing the extension of the program. The Fund does not depend on the revenues generated from this program due to the competitive nature of the award process. The Fund does not depend on the revenues generated from this program due to the competitive nature of the award process.

The Promissory Notes are unsecured and impose no operating restrictions. The Promissory Notes will be unsecured obligations of the Fund and do not contain any restrictive covenants limiting the Fund's ability to make payments on other indebtedness, incur additional indebtedness (including secured indebtedness), make loans to or investments in its affiliates or otherwise limit the Fund's operations or financial condition. Principal repayments and interest payments on the Promissory Notes, therefore, will be dependent solely upon the financial condition of the Fund, which will depend on its ability to obtain repayment of the loans and investments it makes. No reserve fund, sinking fund or trust indenture has been, nor will be, established to provide for repayment of the Promissory Notes. Each of these factors may adversely affect the Fund's ability to repay the Promissory Notes.

Our FHLB debt is secured. In January of 2015, the Fund was admitted as a member to the Federal Home Loan Bank of Pittsburgh ("FHLB"). Borrowing capacity for this facility is determined by the amount of eligible collateral that the Fund can pledge to the FHLB. In September, 2017, the Fund was approved to borrow up to $10,000,000 through the US Treasury Bond Guarantee Fund. As of June 30, 2021, the Fund had drawn $6,641,658 in long term bond funding that is collateralized with pledged commercial loans totaling $6,816,523.

Our affiliates are not obligated on the Promissory Notes. Our affiliates, Community First Capital Corporation and FINANTA, are separate and distinct legal entities and have no obligation, contingent or otherwise, to pay any amounts due on the Promissory Notes or to make funds available to us to do so. As a result, the Promissory Notes will be effectively subordinated to all existing and future obligations (including trade payables) of our affiliates, and the claims of creditors of those affiliates, including trade creditors, will have priority as to the assets and cash flows of those affiliates. In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation, dissolution, reorganization or similar proceeding of any of our affiliates, holders of their liabilities, including their trade creditors, will generally be entitled to payment on their claims from assets of those affiliates before any assets are made available for distribution to us. Consequently, our ability to pay our obligations, including our obligation to pay principal and interest on the Promissory Notes, depends on our affiliates repaying loans and advances we have made to them, and on our affiliates' earnings and their distributing those earnings to us. Our affiliates' ability to issue distributions or make other payments or advances to us will depend on their operating results and will be subject to applicable laws and contractual restrictions. The terms of the Promissory Notes do not limit our ability to make loans to or investments in our affiliates or our affiliates' ability to enter into other agreements that prohibit or restrict distributions or other payments or advances to us.

The Promissory Notes are illiquid investments. There is no market for the Promissory Notes, and it is highly unlikely that a market will develop. Therefore, investors may not be able to liquidate their investment in the Promissory Notes prior to the maturity date of the Promissory Notes and should anticipate that they will be required to bear the risk of an investment in the Promissory Notes for the entire duration of the term of the Promissory Note purchased.

Other investment opportunities offer a higher rate of return with less risk. Other issuers may offer notes or other debt securities with a higher rate of return and/or that provide greater security and less risk than the Promissory Notes. In addition, the Fund and its affiliates may and do, from time to time, offer other Promissory Notes or debt securities with a higher rate of return and/or that provide greater security and less risk than the Promissory Notes.

You will not know, in advance, the types of loans and investments the Fund will make. The Fund intends to use the proceeds derived from the sale of Promissory Notes to make loans, but has not yet determined the actual loans that will be made with those proceeds. An investor will have no control over, and the Promissory Notes do not restrict, the types of loans and investments that can be made by the Fund. In addition, an investor will not be able to evaluate all of the specific loans and investments to be made by the Fund prior to investing. The Board of the Fund has authorized specific lending staff, based on experience and expertise, to approve transactions within specific guidelines set by the Board, with a Loan Committee approving or disapproving all other proposed loans and investments. As a result, the offering of the Promissory Notes may be considered to be a “blind pool” offering because the Fund has not currently identified any borrowers to be loan recipients. These factors will increase the uncertainty, and thus the risk, of investing in the Promissory Notes. See “Lending Factors and Procedures” on page 8.

An investment in the Promissory Notes is not a donation. The purchase of a Promissory Note is not a donation to a charitable organization and is not tax deductible. It is an investment. Interest paid or accrued on the Promissory Notes is income to each holder, and will be subject to tax, unless the holder is eligible for an exemption from federal tax with respect to such interest. Furthermore, a person who, during a given taxable year, holds over $250,000 in the aggregate in principal amount of Promissory Notes (or of Promissory Notes and other debt instruments issued by the Fund and by other charitable organizations that are effectively controlled by the same person or persons who control the Fund) may be considered to have received imputed interest income equal to any forgone interest on the Promissory Notes and to have made a charitable contribution to the Fund of some or all of the forgone interest. Prospective holders of the Promissory Notes are advised to consult their own tax advisors regarding the federal, state, local, and foreign tax consequences of the purchase, ownership, and disposition of the Promissory Notes. See “Tax Considerations” on page 15.

Some assets of the Fund are subject to restriction on use. A portion of the Fund’s assets are restricted and may not be used to repay loans under the Promissory Notes. As of June 30, 2021, the Fund had total assets of $129,236,529 and total net assets of $48,557,606. Total net assets include $41,144,633 of net assets without donor restrictions and $7,412,973 with donor restrictions.

We rely on grants and contributions to support programs and general operations. The Revenue and Support portion of the Change in Net Assets of the Fund, reported in the “Summary of Consolidated Change in Total Net Assets” section, includes portions of grants and contributions. These grants and contributions are made for both special projects and for operating expenses. Grants and contributions for operating expenses are used to support lending, technical assistance and general operating programs.

We engage in transactions with affiliated parties which may pose a conflict of interest. The Fund, at certain times, has guaranteed debt of Community First Capital Corporation, one of its affiliates. In addition, members of the Fund may be affiliated with investors in the Fund or borrowers from the Fund. The terms of such transactions with affiliated parties may be on terms more favorable to the affiliate or related party than would otherwise be available to that affiliate or related party in the market. The ability of the Fund to repay the Promissory Notes may be adversely impacted by the performance of these affiliates and related party investments, loans and commercial arrangements.

The allowance for losses may not be adequate to cover actual losses. When the Fund originates loans, it incurs credit risk, or the risk of losses if its borrowers do not repay their loans or satisfy their lease obligations. The Fund reserves for credit losses by establishing an allowance for credit losses. The amount of this allowance is based on the Fund’s assessment of potential credit losses inherent in its receivable portfolio. This process, which is critical to the Fund’s financial results and condition, requires difficult, subjective and complex judgments, including forecasts of economic conditions and how these economic predictions might impair the ability of the Fund’s borrowers to repay their loans or satisfy their lease obligations. As is the case with any such assessments, there is always the chance that the Fund will fail to identify the proper factors or that it will fail to accurately estimate the impacts of factors that it identifies. If the Fund underestimates the credit losses inherent in its receivable portfolio, it will incur credit losses in excess of the amount reserved, which may adversely affect the Fund’s ability to repay the Promissory Notes. See “Lending Factors and Procedures” on page 8.

The Fund's loan portfolio is concentrated in certain areas. The Fund's receivables portfolio is due primarily from non-profit organizations, small businesses, housing developers, commercial real estate/construction developers, and businesses operating in health care & social services, retail trade and accommodation and food services. At June 30, 2021, the Fund's (and its 'affiliates') five largest borrowers constituted 10.64% of total loans outstanding. The Fund's commercial real estate/construction portfolio constituted 15.0% of total loans outstanding, while accommodation and food services constituted 7.5% of the total loans outstanding. As such, the ability of a significant amount of the Fund's borrowers to repay their loans is dependent upon the viability of the commercial real estate, accommodation and food services sectors, and the Fund's ability to repay the Promissory Notes may be adversely affected by economic, business and political conditions that uniquely or disproportionately affect such sectors.

A Promissory Note will automatically renew for a new term if you fail to give notice of non-renewal. Each investor will receive notice from the Fund, at least 60 days prior to the maturity date of its Promissory Note, of the impending maturity date (a "Renewal Notice") and the option to either (1) receive payment in full of the amount of the principal and accrued interest on the loan at the Maturity Date (a "Non-Renewal) or (2) to renew the loan for the same principal and duration as the original loan and on the terms and conditions, including interest rate, then in effect for the promissory notes that the Borrower is then selling under the Borrower's Prospectus then in effect on terms agreed upon between Borrower and the Investor (a "Rollover"). The renewal notice will be accompanied by the Fund's prospectus then in effect containing a description of the terms of the Promissory Notes that would be issued upon renewal. If the Fund does not receive a response to its Renewal Notice from an investor prior to the maturity date and in the manner provided in the Renewal Notice, the Investor will be deemed to have made a Rollover election. The terms and conditions of any Promissory Note, including interest rate, issued through reinvestment may be less favorable to the investor than the terms and conditions of the Promissory Note originally purchased by the investor.

Some borrowers may be given loan terms that are less stringent than those that would be required by a commercial financial institution. The Fund provides financing to borrowers whose organizations, businesses, and/or projects support and complement the mission of the Fund. In some situations, the Fund's borrowers may be unable to obtain financing from conventional commercial lenders, and the Fund may make loans to borrowers on terms less stringent than those imposed by commercial lenders. The quality and performance of the loans made by the Fund may adversely impact the ability of the Fund to repay the Promissory Notes. See "Use of Proceeds" on page 8.

Other Real Estate Owned. The Fund has historically acquired and managed, and expects that it will continue to acquire and manage, real properties (formally distressed loans) that have been transferred to the Fund in lieu of loan repayments by borrowers as Other Real Estate Owned ("OREO"). The Fund prepares such properties for sale. The Fund accounts for its investment in OREO at the net realizable value ("NRV") at the date the real estate is acquired by the Fund. The NRV is established by determining fair value supported by a current appraisal adjusted for reasonable disposition costs. The appraised value may be discounted based on management's review and changes in market conditions. As of June 30, 2021, the Fund had OREO valued at $156,000.

A loss of our 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status would have a negative impact on our results of operations and ability to obtain funding through grants and donations. The Fund is an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. A loss of such tax-exempt status may adversely affect the Fund by making donations to it ineligible for a deduction for federal income tax purposes and subjecting the Fund's income to federal taxes. Although there are no plans to change the future tax status of the Fund, the Fund is not obligated to continue its current operations or existence as a nonprofit entity. A loss or termination of federal tax-exempt status may also impact the Fund's state-law tax exemption and federal securities law exemption.

Effects of COVID 19. Beginning in the first quarter of 2021, there has been a trend in many parts of the world of increasing availability and administration of vaccines against COVID-19, as well as an easing of restrictions on social, business, travel and government activities and functions. On the other hand, increased rates of infection from new variants of COVID-19 and resistance to vaccination have resulted in a return, in some regions, of social and other restrictions. In addition, the impact of COVID-19 and associated regulations continue to fluctuate in various regions and there are ongoing global impacts resulting from the pandemic, including challenges and increases in costs for logistics and supply chains as well as employee shortages and increased employee wages which have impacted some of our borrowers. If COVID-19 infections surge again, we could potentially see a return of prior restrictions which would likely have a negative impact on the economy and, potentially, the persons and entities to whom we make loans. Any such impact on our borrowers would make it more likely that they will be unable to repay their loan according to its original terms.

Additionally, due to the ongoing uncertainty of the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Fund's general loan portfolio, management has deemed it prudent to increase its specific loan loss reserves for potential future losses that may occur once the various grant and deferment programs that are currently benefiting borrowers expire. The Fund has provided an additional $5,413,461 for loan loss reserves in anticipation of any future losses.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE FUND

Community First Fund. The Fund was organized to be a catalyst for change in low-income communities. Its mission is to build wealth and economic opportunity for low-wealth people and places by financing businesses that positively impact the community. In pursuit of this mission, the Fund integrates capital, knowledge and advocacy to improve the quality of life in low-income neighborhoods, including job creating businesses, affordable housing options, healthy food markets and stores, quality charter schools and child care centers and life enhancing programs and services for low income people provided by community-based organizations. The Fund has received a determination letter from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service granting it tax exempt status as a charitable organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Fund is a certified Community Development Financial Institution ("CDFI"). CDFI certification is the U.S. Department of the Treasury's recognition of specialized financial institutions serving low-income communities. Certified CDFIs are qualified to apply for technical assistance and financial assistance awards, as well as training provided by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's CDFI Fund through its Capacity Building Initiative. Since its inception, the Fund has assisted hundreds of individuals and entities by providing the financing needed for small businesses to start and grow their businesses. Today, these businesses employ thousands of workers.

The Fund is a Pennsylvania non-profit corporation that was formed on May 5, 1992. It is organized as a non-profit corporation within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"). The Fund is operated on a nonprofit basis and, therefore, does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit, incidental or otherwise. No part of the net earnings of the Fund will be distributed to any officer or director of the Fund or to any other individual, except that the Fund will be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered. The Fund is organized on a nonstock basis and has no members. As a Pennsylvania nonprofit corporation, the Fund is managed and operated in accordance with the Pennsylvania Nonprofit Corporation Law and the Fund's Articles of Incorporation and By-laws. Those documents provide, among other things, that the Board of the Fund has full power to control, manage and direct the business, affairs and property of the Fund and that the Board must annually elect the officers of the Fund. While the officers of the Fund are generally responsible for the day-to-day operation of the Fund, the Board remains ultimately responsible for the affairs of the Fund. See "Management of the Fund" on page 9.

FINANTA. On July 1, 2020, the Fund acquired FINANTA, a Philadelphia based nonprofit CDFI Loan Fund founded in 1996. FINANTA converted to a member owned nonprofit organization and appointed the Fund as its sole member. By virtue of the Fund being the sole member of FINANTA, FINANTA will be considered a subsidiary of the fund. FINANTA is a non-profit CDFI that promotes the growth and economic expansion of diverse Philadelphia communities through the infusion of capital and the provision of technical assistance, business consultation services, and homeownership counseling. FINANTA offers similar products and services as the Fund, but also provides loans for mortgages, business investments, and significant consumer purchases such as home renovations and vehicles.

Loans to the Fund. The capital of the Fund is derived, in part, from the proceeds of the issuance of Promissory Notes and from other funding sources which include government agencies, financial institutions, individuals, foundations and faith-based and civic organizations. The rates and terms of the Promissory Notes currently being offered are set forth on the cover page of this Prospectus. Management reviews these rates and terms of the Promissory Notes periodically and may issue Promissory Notes in the future containing different rates and terms.

When an investor subscribes for a Promissory Note, the investor and the Fund will enter into a loan agreement in substantially the form set forth on Exhibit A, and the Fund will issue a Promissory Note to the investor in substantially the form set forth on Exhibit B. All investors must pay the purchase price of the Promissory Note subscribed, in full, at the time of subscription by check made payable to "Community First Fund".

Proceeds from the sale of Promissory Notes that are not immediately disbursed by the Fund are held in bank accounts for liquidity purposes of having funds readily available to provide loans in alignment with the mission of the Fund.

The Fund Makes Loans to Individuals and Entities. The Fund’s principal focus is lending funds to small businesses working to build wealth and create economic opportunity for low- and moderate-income people and places. The Fund’s staff screens loan applications from prospective borrowers, including both non-profit and for-profit organizations. The Board has authorized specific lending staff of the Fund, based on experience and expertise, to approve loans within specific guidelines set by the Board, with a Loan Committee of the Board (as defined below) approving or disapproving all other proposed loans. See “Lending Factors and Procedures” on page 8.

The Fund expects to make both long- and short-term loans. Interest rates will vary, depending on conditions set by the Fund, the priorities of the Fund, the type of loan, prevailing market conditions, and the risk associated with the loan. Loans will not be made when it is clear to the Fund that the applicant would be unable to repay a loan or does not meet the Fund’s underwriting standards. In addition, the Fund has the discretion to determine what collateral, if any, is appropriate for securing a loan. The Fund, at its discretion, imposes terms that provide security for repayment to protect its investment. The Fund monitors the loans for timely repayments and compliance based on terms outlined in the borrower loan agreement. Remedies include default, foreclosure or judgment liens. See “Lending Factors and Procedures” on page 8.

Funding for Operational Expenses. Historically, the Fund’s sources of revenue includes net interest earnings, loan fees, New Markets Tax Credit placement and servicing fees, asset management fees, consulting fees, as well as grant support from foundations/public sector entities and individual donations. The nature and extent of these revenue sources into the future will impact the Fund’s ability to fund its operating budget.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROMISSORY NOTES

Promissory Notes will be issued to investors with a face amount equal to the amount of the investment made. Interest on the loan shall be due and payable annually on the date specified on the Promissory Note. The Promissory Notes do not provide for redemption prior to the maturity date by the holder nor do they allow the Fund to call the Promissory Notes prior to maturity. Any such early redemption or call will require the mutual written consent of the Fund and the investor. Unless an investor timely elects to receive payment in full of the principal amount of its Promissory Note at maturity, the principal amount of an investor’s Promissory Note will be reinvested in a new Promissory Note of the same duration and having the terms and conditions, including interest rate, then in effect for the Promissory Notes that the Fund is then selling under its then-current prospectus.

The Promissory Notes are unsecured obligations of the Fund and do not contain any restrictive covenants limiting the Fund’s ability to make payments on other indebtedness, incur additional indebtedness (including secured indebtedness), make loans to or investments in its affiliates or otherwise limit the Fund’s operations or financial condition. There is no public market for the Promissory Notes, and it is highly unlikely that a public market will develop. Therefore, investors in the Promissory Notes should realize that these investments will be very illiquid.

Our affiliates are separate and distinct legal entities and have no obligation, contingent or otherwise, to pay any amounts due on the Promissory Notes or to make funds available to us to do so. As a result, the Promissory Notes will be effectively subordinated to all existing and future obligations of our affiliates, and the claims of creditors of those affiliates will have priority as to the assets and cash flows of those affiliates. In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation, dissolution, reorganization or similar proceeding of any of our affiliates, holders of their liabilities, including their trade creditors, will generally be entitled to payment on their claims from assets of those affiliates before any assets are made available for distribution to us. Consequently, our ability to pay our obligations, including our obligation to pay principal and interest on the Promissory Notes, depends in part on our affiliates repaying loans and advances we have made to them, and on our affiliates’ earnings and their distributing those earnings to us. Our affiliates’ ability to make payments or advances to us will depend on their operating results and will be subject to applicable laws and contractual restrictions. The terms of the Promissory Notes do not limit our ability to make loans to our affiliates or our affiliates’ ability to enter into other agreements that prohibit or restrict payments or advances to us.

The Fund will provide each investor with a Renewal Notice at least 60 days prior to the maturity date of its Promissory Note. The Renewal Notice will state the Investor’s right to elect either Non-Renewal of its Note at maturity or a Rollover of the Note at maturity. The Renewal Notice will be accompanied by the Fund’s prospectus then in effect containing a description of the terms of the Promissory Notes that would be issued upon a Rollover. If an investor desires to elect Non-Renewal, the investor must give notice of such election to the Fund, and that notice must be received by the Fund prior to the Maturity Date. If the Fund does not receive timely written notice of Non-Renewal, the Investor will be deemed to have elected a Rollover. The terms and conditions of any Promissory Note, including interest rate, issued through reinvestment may be less favorable to the investor than the terms and conditions of the Promissory Note originally purchased by the Investor.

See the form of loan agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A and the form of Promissory Note attached hereto as Exhibit B. Interest rates on Promissory Notes will be consistent with the table on the cover page of this Prospectus, and investors may elect, on their investor application, either to receive annual interest payments or to reinvest interest payments with the Fund.

USE OF PROCEEDS

As previously described, the Fund intends to use the net proceeds from the offering for the purpose of making loans to and/or equity investments in organizations and businesses working to alleviate poverty, build wealth and create economic opportunity for low wealth communities and low-income individuals, especially Persons of Color. The proceeds of this offering are not earmarked for any specific loan or loans, but the Fund anticipates that substantially all of the proceeds of the offering would be used to make loans. All proceeds of this offering will be commingled with the other funds of the Fund and will be held in the general operating account of the Fund until such time as the proceeds are used to make loans.

CAPITALIZATION

The following table sets forth the actual consolidated capitalization of the Fund as of June 30, 2021 and the pro forma consolidated capitalization of the Fund as of June 30, 2021, assuming the Promissory Notes offered by this Prospectus were issued and sold on June 30, 2021. LENDING FACTORS AND PROCEDURES

To qualify for a loan from the Fund, an applicant’s project or overall mission must be consistent with the principles and purpose of the Fund and demonstrate potential for building wealth and creating economic opportunity for low wealth communities and low-income individuals in our market, and the applicant must demonstrate an ability and willingness to meet the terms of the loan, including such requirements for technical assistance as may be imposed by the Fund.

The Fund has underwriting standards specific to each loan product and borrower type. The categories of analysis include management capacity, collateral value, marketing plans, adequacy of cash flow, credit history and past performance with the Fund, quality of financial reporting and historic financial performance, and quality of the business planning and experience with executing similar projects or programs. The Fund's underwriting also frequently incorporates third party reports from credit bureaus, appraisers, engineers, architects, and environmental specialists. All loans in excess of staff lending authority are reviewed by a Loan Committee, appointed by the Board, and/or the Board. The Board has authorized specific lending staff, based on experience and expertise, to approve loans and investments within specific guidelines as set by the Board.

Each Loan Committee member provides varied and relevant expertise and makes recommendations for any new membership, with new members approved and appointed by the Board. The Fund monitors conflicts of interest, including requiring an annual conflict of interest statement to be signed by each Loan Committee member. Loan Committee members must recuse themselves from the meeting for any loan for which they may have real or perceived conflicts. Loan Committee members do not receive any compensation or reimbursement for their time.

The Fund's Loan Policies and Procedures, which was most recently reaffirmed by the Fund's Board in December 2015, dictates lending authority. As of April 21, 2021, the Board of Directors has lending authority for all financing; the Board Loan Committee has authority for all financing up to $3,000,000; the Chief Executive Officer or Board designee has authority for all financing up to $1,000,000; and the Staff Loan Committee has authority for all financing up to $2,000,000.

Each borrower obtaining a loan will execute a note and such other legal instruments as are deemed necessary to provide for the repayment of principal and interest. The Fund will make both long and short-term loans; interest rates will vary, depending on conditions set by lenders to the Fund, the priorities of the Fund, prevailing market conditions, and the risk associated with the loan. In most cases, the loans will be secured in some way, but when the Fund is otherwise satisfied that repayment is reasonably assured, a loan may be unsecured. The Board may change these underwriting standards and procedures or make exceptions thereto, from time to time, in its sole discretion.

At June 30, 2021, loans receivable included individual loans in excess of $500,000 to twenty discrete borrowers totaling $18,150,877. With respect to individual loans in excess of $500,000 and greater than 90 days past due at June 30, 2021, there is one matured loan totaling $930,000 that continues to pay monthly while terms for renewal are negotiated. Cumulative loan losses greater than $100,000 for the 12 months ended June 30, 2021 totaled $100,000. Cumulative recoveries greater than $100,000 for the twelve months ended June 30, 2021 totaled $0. There was a total of twenty-seven recoveries for the year with the largest at $51,326. Senior management meets monthly to review distressed assets to determine any potential charge-offs and expected recoveries.

SUMMARY OF FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2021, the Fund's loan portfolio increased 14.8% to $78,430,878 compared to fiscal year 2020. The increased loan volume can primarily be attributed to the FINANTA merger and the addition of more short-term Paycheck Protection Program and Lancaster County Emergency Loans in the amount of $7,741,241 which also provided additional grant and fee income. Total delinquencies decreased year over year from 5.3% to 1.7% which was attributed to decreases in all of the Fund's past due categories. Loans on nonaccrual status was not a factor as it was less than one hundredth of one percent of the total portfolio for the fiscal year ended 2021. Collectively, 90+ day loans on nonaccrual status accounted for 0% of the total loan portfolio for the fiscal year ended 2021 compared to 3.1% from the year before. For the 90+ day delinquency category, there were seven loans that accounted for the increase. Management is addressing the loans on a case-by-case basis that include repayment arrangements, modifications, or liquidation.

The following table sets forth information regarding delinquencies of the Fund's loan receivable portfolio.

TAX CONSIDERATIONS

This summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax considerations is for general information purposes only, is not relevant to all prospective holders – such as foreign persons – of the Promissory Notes, and is not tax advice. This summary does not purport to deal with all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular prospective holder in light of the prospective holder’s circumstances. This summary does not address any aspect of state, local, or foreign law, or U.S. federal estate and gift tax law.

PROSPECTIVE HOLDERS OF THE PROMISSORY NOTES ARE ADVISED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP, AND DISPOSITION OF THE PROMISSORY NOTES.

Any interest paid or accrued on Promissory Notes will be income to the holder for federal income tax purposes. The investor generally will be liable for federal income tax on such interest, unless the investor is eligible for an exemption from federal tax with respect to such interest. Each investor will receive a Form 1099 in January of each year indicating the interest earned on the investment. Investors will not be taxed on the repayment of the principal of their loan.

Notes which bear interest at “below-market” rates may fall within the imputed interest provisions of the Code (in particular, Code section 7872), which, in some cases, impose tax liability on investors for the difference between market rates and the interest actually paid. The Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) has issued temporary and proposed regulations interpreting these provisions. The temporary regulations state that certain loans carrying “below market” rates of interest will be exempted from the imputed interest provisions of the Code. The exemptions include a gift loan to a charitable organization that is described in Code section 170(c) if, at no time during the taxable year, the aggregate outstanding amount of loans by the lender to that organization (or to charitable organizations that are effectively controlled by the same person or persons who control that organization) exceeds $250,000.

The Fund has received an IRS determination that it is an exempt organization within the meaning of Code section 501(c)(3) and a determination that it will be treated as a publicly supported organization under Code section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi). Such organizations are described in Code section 170(c). Therefore, under the above-mentioned regulations, a loan to the Fund which carries an interest rate that is below the market rate announced by the IRS will not be subject to the imputed interest provisions of the Code if the foregoing of interest on the loan by the holder is in the nature of a gift and if the amount of the loan, together with all other loans made by the investor to the Fund (or to charities controlled by the same person or persons who control the Fund), does not exceed $250,000. The holder would be entitled to no charitable deduction on account of any forgone interest that is exempt from the imputed interest provisions of Code section 7872 in the manner described in the preceding sentence.

If a holder loans to the Fund (or the Fund and to charities controlled by the same person or persons who control the Fund) an amount during a taxable year that, in the aggregate, exceeds $250,000 and the loan carries a below-market rate of interest, the investor may be treated as receiving imputed interest income and as making a corresponding charitable contribution, which will be subject to the limitations in the Code for charitable contribution deductions. It is possible, therefore, that some or all of the imputed interest income could be offset by a charitable deduction. The temporary regulations further provide that a below-market interest rate loan may also be exempt from the imputed interest provisions of Code section 7872 if the taxpayer can demonstrate that the interest arrangements of the loan have no significant effect on any federal tax liability of the Fund or holder. Whether the interest arrangements of a loan have a significant effect on any federal tax liability of the Fund or holder is determined on a loan-by-loan basis and is dependent upon all of the facts and circumstances.

TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE CIRCULAR 230, HOLDERS ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT: (A) ANY DISCUSSION OF FEDERAL TAX ISSUES IN THIS PROSPECTUS IS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN BY THE FUND TO BE RELIED UPON, AND CANNOT BE RELIED UPON BY HOLDERS FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING PENALTIES THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON HOLDERS UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE; (B) SUCH DISCUSSION IS WRITTEN TO SUPPORT THE PROMOTION OR MARKETING OF THE TRANSACTIONS AND PROMISSORY NOTES ADDRESSED HEREIN; AND (C) HOLDERS SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.

PENDING LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

There are no material legal or administrative proceedings now pending against the Fund nor are there any such proceedings known to be threatened or contemplated by governmental authorities. In the normal course of business, the organization is subject to various pending or threatened litigation. In the opinion of management, the ultimate resolution of such litigation will not have a material adverse effect on the Fund’s consolidated financial statements.

The law firm of Barley Snyder LLP, 126 East King Street, Lancaster, PA 17602 has given a legal opinion to the Fund to the effect that the Promissory Notes, when issued pursuant to this offering, will constitute binding obligations of the Fund.
